

2009 Team Co-Captain Commitment Pledge

As a Team Co-Captain for the Rays of Hope Walk you are the vital link along with your Team Captain between your team members and the Rays of Hope mission. You and your team members are true heroes to the thousands of women and men touched by breast cancer. By signing this pledge you will help to ensure the success of the Rays of Hope Walk with your commitment and enthusiasm.

Sign this pledge and hang it on your refrigerator, at your office or wherever you will see it daily to remind you of your commitment!

As Team Co-Captain I hereby pledge to help recruit team members with our Team Captain for the 16th Annual Rays of Hope Walk and I pledge that we will join the thousands walking toward the cure on October 25, 2009. I will help recruit _____ team members this year.

As Team Co-Captain I hereby pledge to help my team learn fun and exciting ways to help fundraise for Rays of Hope and to encourage them each day in their efforts to reach our Team Goals. I pledge to help my Team Captain to create our Team Web Page and to encourage our team members to create their own individual Web Pages and to send emails to all our family and friends asking for their support.

Our Team Fundraising Goal is $_____.

As Team Co-Captain I hereby pledge to champion the Rays of Hope Walk and raise funds to help in its mission to improve the breast health of all the people in our communities with quality and compassion in partnership with Baystate Regional Cancer Program's Comprehensive Breast Center.
