

Donor and Recipient Testimonials

Every woman who wants a child should be able to have one. I have plenty of eggs and thought I could give some to someone else. I felt like I gave them the world. - Cynthia, mother of four, egg donor

There is nothing I can say - thank you just doesn't seem enough. She could never know how much her gift meant to me. - Tammy, recipient

I knew the heartbreak of a relative who was infertile. I was done having children and wanted to do something nice for someone else. - Teri, egg donor

I can never thank everyone enough for giving us our miracle baby. - Mary, recipient

Thank you for helping to bring so much joy to our lives. -Julie, recipient

I love the fact I can make another family happy with something I'm not using. - Traci, repeat donor

It was a heart-warming experience. It felt good to help others. I felt I was well cared for and respected throughout the process. - Kim, repeat donor

Seeing the joy of my friend who conceived with the help of a donor was touching. Knowing I could do that for a family in need is exciting and an honor. - Michelle, egg donor
